8. No Exclusivity. This Agreement does not obligate either party to conduct business exclusively with the other party.
9. Confidentiality. a. Confidential and Proprietary Information. In the course of the Joint Venture, the parties will be exposed to confidential and proprietary information. "Confidential Information" shall mean any data or information that is competitively sensitive material and not generally known to the public, including, but not limited to, information relating to development and plans, marketing strategies, finance, operations, systems, proprietary concepts, documentation, reports, data, specifications, computer software, source code, object code, flow charts, data, databases, inventions, know-how, trade secrets, customer lists, customer relationships, customer profiles, supplier lists, supplier relationships, supplier profiles, pricing, sales estimates, business plans and internal performance results relating to the past, present or future business activities, technical information, designs, processes, procedures, formulas, improvements, and other information which the parties consider confidential and proprietary. The parties acknowledge and agree that each party's Confidential Information is valuable property, developed over a long period of time at substantial expense and that it is worthy of protection.

b. Confidentiality Obligations. Except as otherwise expressly permitted in this Agreement, the parties shall not disclose or use in any manner, directly or indirectly, any Confidential Information either during the term of this Agreement or at any time thereafter, except as required to perform their respective duties and responsibilities or with the other party's prior written consent. Both parties agree that all Confidential Information disclosed and received shall remain secret and confidential during the term of this Agreement and continue thereafter for five (5) years after this Agreement is terminated or expires.

c. Rights in Confidential and Proprietary Information. All ideas, concepts, work product, information, written material or other Confidential Information disclosed to either party (i) are and shall remain the sole and exclusive property of the disclosing party, and (ii) are disclosed or permitted to be acquired by the receiving party solely in reliance on this Agreement to maintain them in confidence and not to use or disclose them to any other person except in furtherance of the Joint Venture. Except as expressly provided herein, this Agreement does not confer any right, license, ownership or other interest or title in, to or under the Confidential Information to the receiving party.

d. Irreparable Harm. Each party acknowledges that the use or disclosure of any Confidential Information in a manner inconsistent with this Agreement will give rise to irreparable injury for which damages would not be an adequate remedy. Accordingly, in addition to any other legal remedies which may be available at law or in equity, the disclosing party shall be entitled to equitable or injunctive relief against the unauthorized use or disclosure of Confidential Information. The disclosing party shall be entitled to pursue any other legally permissible remedy available as a result of such breach, including but not limited to damages, both direct and consequential. In any action brought by the disclosing party under this Section, the disclosing party shall be entitled to recover its attorney's fees and costs from the receiving party.

10. Notices. All notices given under this Agreement must be in writing. A notice is effective upon receipt and shall be sent via one of the following methods: delivery in person, overnight courier service, certified or registered mail, postage prepaid, return receipt requested, addressed to the party to be notified at the address first stated above, or to such other address as such party may designate upon reasonable notice to the other party.
